Ethics Policy

We hereby dedicate ourselves to carrying out the mission of this Society. We will:

1. Recognize that the chief function of the Society at all times is to serve the best interests of our constituency.
2. Accept as a personal duty the responsibility to keep up to date on emerging issues and to conduct ourselves with professional competence, fairness, impartiality, efficiency, and effectiveness.
3. Respect the structure and responsibilities of the board of directors, use facts and advice as a basis for making policy decisions, and uphold and implement policies adopted by the board of directors.
4. Keep the community informed about issues affecting the Society.
5. Conduct our organizational and operational duties with positive leadership exemplified by open communication, creativity, dedication, and compassion.
6. Exercise whatever discretionary authority we have under the law to carry out the mission of the Society.
7. Serve with respect, concern, courtesy, and responsiveness in carrying out the Society's mission.
8. Demonstrate the highest standards of personal integrity, truthfulness, honesty, and fortitude in all our activities in order to inspire confidence and trust in our activities.
9. Avoid any interest or activity that is in conflict with the conduct of our official duties.
10. Respect and protect privileged information to which we have access in the course of our official duties.
11. Strive for personal and professional excellence and encourage the professional developments of others.

Adopted February 7, 2013

Conflict of Interest Policy

Article I – Purpose

The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect the Lake County Agricultural Society's interest as a tax-exempt organization when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Lake County Agricultural Society or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II – Definitions

1. Interested Person - Any director, officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below is an interested person.
2. Financial Interest - A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
 - a. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Lake County Agricultural Society has a transaction or arrangement,
 - b. A compensation arrangement with the Lake County Agricultural Society or any entity or individual with which the Lake County Agricultural Society has a transaction or arrangement, or
 - c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Lake County Agricultural Society is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III – Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose - In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.
2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists
After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.
3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest
 - a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
 - b. The Chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
 - c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Lake County Agricultural Society can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
 - d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Lake County Agricultural Society's best interest, for its own benefit and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

- a. If the governing body or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate and corrective action.

Article IV – Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

- a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V – Compensation

- a. A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Lake County Agricultural Society for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- b. A voting member of an committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Lake County Agricultural Society for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that members compensation.
- c. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Lake County Agricultural Society, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI – Annual Statements

Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall at the time this policy is adopted and thereafter at the time of his/her election or appointment to a new term of office, sign a statement which affirms such person:

- a. Has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy,
- b. Has read and understands the policy,
- c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
- d. Understands the Lake County Agricultural Society is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII – Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Lake County Agricultural Society operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.
- b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Lake County Agricultural Society written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII – Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, the Lake County Agricultural Society may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

Whistleblower Policy

General

The Lake County Agricultural Society expects its directors, officers and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Society, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations

Reporting Responsibility

It is the responsibility of all directors, officers and employees to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy and the Ohio Revised Code.

No Retaliation

No director, officer or employee who in good faith reports a violation as defined in the Ohio Revised Code shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse employment consequence. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns within the Society prior to seeking resolution outside the Society.

Reporting Violations

The Ohio Revised Code addresses the Society's open door policy and suggests that employees and others share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with someone who can address them properly. In most cases, the Secretary-Treasurer is in the best position to address an area of concern. However, if you are not comfortable speaking with the Secretary-Treasurer or you are not satisfied with the Secretary-Treasurer's response, you are encouraged to speak with the President of the Society who has the specific and exclusive responsibility to investigate all reported violations. For suspected fraud, or when you are not satisfied or are uncomfortable with the President's response the Immediate Past President should be contacted. In these cases the Immediate Past President shall have the responsibility to investigate and suspected violations.

Compliance Officer

The Society's President shall serve as the Society's Compliance Officer is responsible for investigating and resolving all reported complaints and allegations concerning violations of the Ohio Revised Code and, at his discretion, shall advise the Fair Board and/or the audit committee. The Compliance Officer has direct access to the audit committee of the board of directors and is required to report to the audit committee at least annually on compliance activity.

Accounting and Auditing Matters

The audit committee of the board of directors shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing. The Compliance Officer shall immediately notify the audit committee of any such complaint and work with the committee until the matter is resolved.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone filing a complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation of the Ohio Revised Code must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation of the Code. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious offense.

Confidentiality

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Handling of Reported Violations

The Compliance Officer will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the reported violation or suspected violation within five business days. All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.

Records Retention Policy

The Lake County Agricultural Society recognizes that as a tax-exempt organization, proper record keeping, record retention and record disposal are very important. In order to retain Federal Tax exemption, the Society will comply with all federal and state laws relating to record keeping, record retention and record disposal.

All institutional and legal records, federal tax records, accounting & financial records, litigation records, insurance records and personnel files will be recorded and retained to the minimum standards set by federal and state mandate and as listed in Attachment "A" of this policy. Attachment "A" will be updated from time-to-time as requirements change. The term "records" include hard paper copy, computer disks, microfilm, visual media and such other electronic communications.

In addition, the Society may identify other non-mandated, but valuable intangible property of importance and it will strive to protect and preserve. The property could include, but is not limited to certificates, licenses, publications royalty records and other background material which will be treated and retained as permanent records where possible.

The Society maintains a locked, masonry "vault" for record retention. When any item covered by this policy becomes dated beyond its use in the normal course of the Society's business, the record(s) or property will be moved from the business office to the "vault" for retention purposes.

The Secretary-Treasurer and Chairman of the Historical Committee, together, are authorized to dispose of records but only when they have exceeded the retention periods mandated by law or otherwise stated. The disposal of documents that include or might include confidential information such as personal identification numbers including Social Security numbers, will be disposed of by shredding or other means that will insure to protect confidential information.
